Ex-Offender Policy

As an organisation using the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) checking service to assess an applicant's suitability for positions of trust, Dumpton School complies fully with the Code of Practice and undertakes to treat all applicants for positions fairly. It undertakes not to discriminate unfairly against any subject of a DBS check on the basis of a conviction or other information revealed.

Dumpton School is committed to the fair treatment of its staff, potential staff or users of its services, regardless of race, gender, religion, sexual orientation, responsibilities for dependents, age, physical / mental disability or offending background.

We have a written policy on the recruitment of ex-offenders, which is made available to all DBS applicants at the outset of the recruitment process.

We actively promote equality of opportunity for all with the right mix of talent, skills and potential and welcome applications from a wide range of candidates, including those with criminal records. We select all candidates for interview based on their skills, qualifications and experience.

Unless the nature of the position allows Dumpton School to ask questions about your entire criminal record, we ask only about "unspent" convictions as defined in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

We ensure that all those in Dumpton School who are involved in the recruitment process have been suitably trained to identify and assess the relevance and circumstances of offences. We also ensure that they have received appropriate guidance and training in the relevant legislation relating to the employment of ex-offenders, e.g. the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

At interview, or in a separate discussion, we ensure that an open and measured discussion takes place on the subject of any offences or other matter that might be relevant to the position. Failure to reveal information that is directly relevant to the position sought could lead to withdrawal of an offer of employment.

We make every subject of a DBS check aware of the existence of the Code of Practice and make a copy available on request.

We undertake to discuss any matter revealed in a DBS check with the person seeking the position before withdrawing a conditional offer of employment.

Data Protection Privacy Notice - Recruitment

This notice explains what personal data (information) we will hold about you, how we collect it, and how we will use and may share information about you during the application process. We are required to notify you of this information, under data protection legislation. Please ensure that you read this notice (sometimes referred to as a 'privacy notice') and any other similar notice we may provide to you from time to time when we collect or process personal information about you.

Who collects the information?

DUMPTON SCHOOL ('School') is a 'data controller' and gathers and uses certain information about you. In this notice, references to 'we' or 'us' mean the School.

Data protection principles

We will comply with the data protection principles when gathering and using personal information, as set out in our Data Protection and Privacy Policies.

About the information we collect and hold

We may collect the following information up to and including the shortlisting stage of the recruitment process:

- Your name and contact details (i.e. address, home and mobile phone numbers, email address)
- Details of your qualifications, experience, employment history including job titles, salary and working hours and interests;
- Your racial or ethnic origin, sex and sexual orientation, religious or similar beliefs
- Information regarding your criminal record
- Details of your referees

We may collect the following information after the shortlisting stage, and before making a final decision to recruit:

- Information about your previous academic and/or employment history, including details of any conduct, grievance or performance issues, appraisals, time and attendance, from references obtained about you from previous employers and/or education providers
- Information regarding your academic and professional qualifications
- Information regarding your criminal record, in criminal records certificates (CRCs) and enhanced criminal records certificates (ECRCs)
- Your nationality and immigration status and information from related documents, such as your passport or other identification and immigration information
- A copy of your driving licence

You are required (by law or in order to enter into your contract of employment) to provide the categories of information above to us to enable us to verify your right to work and suitability for the position.

How we collect the information

We may collect this information from you, your referees (details of whom you will have provided), your education provider, any relevant professional body, the Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) and the Home Office.

Why we collect the information and how we use it

We will typically collect and use this information for the following purposes (other purposes that may also apply are explained in our data protection policy):

- to take steps to enter into a contract;
- for compliance with a legal obligation e.g. our obligation to check that you are eligible to work in the United Kingdom and
- for the purposes of our legitimate interests, but only if these are not overridden by your interests, rights or freedoms

How we may share the information

We may also need to share some of the above categories of personal information with other parties, such as HR consultants and professional advisers. Usually, information will be anonymised but this may not always be possible. The recipient of the information will be bound by confidentiality obligations. We may also be required to share some personal information with our regulators or as required to comply with the law.

Sensitive personal information and criminal records information

Further details on how we handle sensitive personal information and information relating to criminal convictions and offences are set out in our Disclosure, Storage and Retention Policy, Staff Recruitment Policy, General Data Retention Policy and Staff Handbook. These policies are available from the Bursar or on the staff section of the school website.

We seek to ensure that our information collection and processing is always proportionate. We will notify you of any changes to information we collect or to the purposes for which we collect and process it.

Where information may be held

Information may be held at our offices and third party agencies, service providers, representatives and agents as described above.

How long we keep your information

We keep the personal information that we obtain about you during the recruitment process for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which it is processed. How long we keep your information will depend on whether your application is successful and you become employed by us, the nature of the information concerned and the purposes for which it is processed.

We will keep recruitment information (including interview notes) for no longer than is reasonable, taking into account the limitation periods for potential claims such as race or sex discrimination (as extended to take account of early conciliation), after which they will be destroyed. If there is a clear business reason for keeping recruitment records for longer than the recruitment period, we may do so but will first consider whether the records can be pseudonymised, and the longer period for which they will be kept.

If your application is successful, we will keep only the recruitment information that is necessary in relation to your employment. For further information, see our Data Protection Privacy Notice (employment) which is available from the Bursar.

Further details on our approach to information retention and destruction are available in our Employee Data Retention Policy available from the Bursar or the staff section of the school website.

Please contact the Bursar, who can be contacted by email at bursar@dumpton.com or by contacting the school on 01202 883818 if (in accordance with applicable law) you would like to correct or request access to information that we hold relating to you or if you have any questions about this notice. You also have the right to ask our Bursar for some but not all of the information we hold and process to be erased (the 'right to be forgotten') in certain circumstances. The Bursar will provide you with further information about the right to be forgotten, if you ask for it.

Keeping your personal information secure

We have appropriate security measures in place to prevent personal information from being accidentally lost, or used or accessed in an unauthorised way. We limit access to your personal information to those who have a genuine business need to know it. Those processing your information will do so only in an authorised manner and are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES MONITORING FORM

Dumpton School has an equal opportunities policy and is keen to ensure that it is working efficiently. The information you provide will be treated in the strictest confidence and will be used only for statistical monitoring and is not used as part of the interview selection process.
